

AN EMPOWERED FUTURE

Corporate evaluation of UN Women's contribution to women's economic empowerment

UN Women's Contribution to Women's Economic Empowerment (WEE): Management Response

Meg Jones
Chief, Economic Empowerment

United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women

In short:

1. Move into macroeconomic space
2. Lead through partnership
3. Use a rights-based approach
4. Strengthen leadership on women's economic empowerment
5. Become a knowledge-lead organization

Recommendations inform development of Flagship Programmes for Women's Economic Empowerment (WEE FPs). Includes:

- Demand and supply side linkages couched in enabling environment (includes macroeconomic space)
- UN Women's coordination mandate for UN entity partnerships; Women's Empowerment Principles with corporations;
- Deeper integration of rights-based approach
- Leadership returned to Economic Empowerment Section
- Knowledge management and propagation through EmpowerWomen.org
