II. DRAFT TOC: Women’s Political Empowerment and Leadership

A TOC by nature
identify these ac

Goal	Women Lead in Political Decision-Making Key indicators: % women in local governments; % women in national parliaments
Goal Statement	If (1) electoral frameworks and arrangements promote gender balance in elections; if (2) a cadre of interested, diverse and capable women political leaders is formed; if (3) women are promoted as leaders in gender sensitive political institutions, then (4) women will be politically empowered because (5) women will have political agency and lead in decision-making.
Outcomes	1. Electoral frameworks and arrangements promote gender balance in elections. Key indicators: % of countries with electoral frameworks that promote gender balance	2. A cadre of interested, diverse and capable women political leaders is formed. Key indicators: % women who regularly undertake various forms political action
Outcome TOC	If (1) women’s participation is enabled through policy and legal frameworks, electoral arrangements and selection processes, and if VAW is mitigated, then (2) women will run for election because (3) there is a more level playing field	If (1) women from diverse groups have enhanced capacity to seek leadership and have skills to mobilize resources, then (2) more women will be nominated as political contestants because (3) there are sufficient numbers of skilled women for gatekeepers to select from
Outputs	1.1. Strengthened legislative framework enables women’s participation and leadership (reforms to constitutional provisions, electoral frameworks- voters, candidates, party members; promotion of GE/parity; political finance & campaign expenditure caps; quotas with sanctions legislated and enforced; violence criminalized) 1.2. Political party policies and procedures reform to include women (campaigns target gate-keepers to select women; voluntary reforms to party statutes; women nominated in winnable positions; codes of conduct, accountability of women leaders) 1.3. Violence against women in elections is mitigated (capacity building of security forces; data collection; CSO monitoring mechanisms and women’s situation rooms in place) 1.4. Electoral arrangements enhance women’s political participation and leadership (EMBs guarantee women can register and vote; women have access to ID documents; measures put in place to encourage participation in elections; voter outreach; women lead in electoral management)	2.1. Increased technical capacity of women to engage in leadership contests (capacity development of women aspirants; public speaking; constituency engagement; transformative leadership training, including of young and marginalized women) 2.2. Enhance women’s capacity to conduct competitive, well-resourced and innovative campaigns (capacity development of women candidates on campaign messaging, outreach, using ICT and social media campaigns; access to women’s fundraising networks) 2.3. Diverse networks of support for women leaders created and sustained (e.g. working with professional networks, CSO networks, social media networks, political parties, youth groups)
Key Assumptions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • There is political will to adopt reforms. • Some technical knowledge already exists among key national stakeholders. • Providing technical support will result in reformed legal frameworks. • Political party nomination procedures discriminate against women. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A select group of women are willing to enter politics and lead. • Most women are outside moneyed networks. • Political parties will nominate skilled and resourced women candidates • National stakeholders and donors willing to support women’s networks and GE advocates • The capacities of women to run innovative and well-resourced campaigns can be strengthened.
Risks & Barriers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Political upheavals stall parliamentary and legislative processes • Gender equality not considered a priority in electoral administration • Legislation not enforced • National partners have limited capacities to apply knowledge 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Parties may nominate women but voters don’t elect them • Male incumbents are able to raise more money than women
