Canada's prioritization of regular resources to UN Women contributed to...

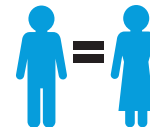

Between 2018 and 2019, over 57 unique initiatives to monitor violence against women in politics were developed and/or implemented.

The adaptation or amendment of 72 laws to strengthen women's rights in 61 countries, with a combined population of nearly 1.6 billion women and girls

In 2019, over 490,000 women and girls used UN Women supported humanitarian services.

Since 2011 to date, Canada has provided USD 64 million to UN Women's regular resources contributing to, among several actions, normative engagement on women's political participation and leadership.

Canada's support to specific programmes resulted in...

UN Women supporting the National Women's Machinery in the Ukraine to strengthen capacities and uphold CEDAW commitments as well as guide government development and implementation of the Gender Equality Plan for 2018.

The creation of enabling environments and safe electoral processes free of violence against women in Haiti, contributing to the improvement of legal frameworks, outreach to civil society organizations and training for members of the media, judiciary and executive, including the police.

In 2018, with Canada's support, UN Women deployed 14 sexual violence investigators and gender advisers to eight international investigations. Evidence from investigations in Syria is now being used by the UN's International, Impartial and Independent Mechanism for Syria to develop cases against individual perpetrators.

Other resources of USD 45 million have allowed UN Women to strategically focus on women's economic empowerment as well as ending violence against women and girls, peace and security, and women's political leadership and participation.
